Irving Flood Control District board members reappointed

At the January meeting of the Irving Flood Control District Section III (IFCD3), it was announced that the Irving City Council had unanimously voted to reappoint Kim Andres, Chris Calvery and Dr. Mazhar Islamraja to the District's board of directors. Their terms are effective through January 2017.

Kim Andres, president of the IFCD 3 board, is an attorney with Citi, where she has worked since 1995. She has served on the Irving Arts Board and is currently is president of the Irving Symphony League. Chris Calvery, board vice president, is an account executive for WEB-TPA, a third-party administrator in the health insurance industry. He is an Irving native and currently serves as the president of The Collections homeowners association. Dr. Islamraja, IFCD 3's secretary, is the president of Mach B Technologies. Prior to starting Mach B Technologies, he was an executive director at Verizon Communications.

"I'm honored to continue working alongside Chris, Mazhar and the rest of the IFCD 3 board to ensure that the District continues to actively manage the community's flood control assets and resources," Andres said in a news release. "IFCD 3 relies heavily on community engagement and having the experiences and broad knowledge base that our board members possess is crucial."

Continuing in board service with Andres, Calvery and Dr. Islamraja are William Correa, P.E., IFCD 3 board treasurer, and Neha Kunte, IFCD 3 board member.
