

IRVING FLOOD CONTROL DISTRICT SECTION III ANNOUNCES BOARD MEMBER REAPPOINTMENTS

Jan. 18 News Update

On Thursday evening, Jan. 12, the Irving City Council unanimously voted to reappoint Chris Wallace and William Correa to the Irving Flood Control District Section III (IFCD 3) board.

Chris Wallace, who serves as the Board's vice president, is president and CEO of the Greater Irving-Las Colinas Chamber of Commerce. William Correa, IFCD 3's treasurer, is CEO of Paragon Project Resources, Inc. The Council's reappointment extends both of their terms until January of 2014.

"Chris and William bring added value to IFCD 3 from their respective professional positions, as well as their involvement in the community as Valley Ranch residents," said Kim Andres, Irving Flood Control District Section III president. "In their reappointments, they will continue to play an instrumental role in impacting the Valley Ranch community."

About Irving Flood Control District Section III

Irving Flood Control District Section III (IFCD 3) is responsible for providing flood control facilities and operations and preserving the high quality of life provided in Valley Ranch. The District safeguards people and enhances the economic value of property by constructing and maintaining canals, ponds and other natural water management facilities throughout the community. A publicly funded organization, IFCD 3 is led by a five-member board appointed by the Irving City Council. District board members are committed to serving their fellow residents of Valley Ranch in an efficient, effective and transparent manner.
